Ph.D. Third year Field Declaration

-To assist and help get dissertation research started in a timely fashion, you are required to declare a field(s) at the beginning of the third year (International, Development, Micro, Macro or others as offered).
-Third year students must participate in the seminars and workshops associated with the declared field(s) of interest.
-In fall quarter, third year students must enroll in Econ 296A and the Directed Reading sequence, Econ 295, also in winter and spring.

Student: _____

Field of Selection:
(please circle your choice/s)

Development

International Trade

International Finance

Macro/Monetary

Public/Applied Micro

Other: (specify)

Ph.D. Program Director Approval: _____

Date:

Enrollment closes at the third week of the fall quarter.
Forms should be approved and submitted to the graduate coordinator prior to the third week to obtain enrollment course numbers.