

Ph.D. Third year Field Declaration

-To assist and help get dissertation research started in a timely fashion, you are required to declare a field(s) at the beginning of the third year (International, Development, Micro, Macro or others as offered).

-Third year students must participate in the seminars and enroll in workshops associated with the declared field(s) of interest.

-In the third year students must enroll in Econ 298, Dissertation Research.

Student:

Field of Selection:

(please circle your choice/s)

Development

International Trade

International Finance

Macro/Monetary

Public/Applied Micro

Experimental/Behavioral

Other: (specify)

Ph.D. Program Director Approval:

Date:

Enrollment closes at the third week of the fall quarter.

Forms should be approved and submitted to the graduate coordinator prior to the third week to obtain enrollment course numbers.