

Email: bperry10@gmail.com

Ben Perry
564 West 10th Street, Claremont CA, 91711

Cell: (909) 935-9747

Work Experience:

Texas Rangers Trackman Operator

April 2016 – Present

- Operated the Trackman apparatus for all 70 home games of the Rangers' High-A California League affiliate High Desert Mavericks as well as the California League Playoffs
- Recorded pitch data & results for over 21,000 pitches and hundreds of subsequently batted balls
- Sent TrackMan outputs and Game Reports to front office members and maintained/edited Excel spreadsheets featuring velocities, RPM readings, launch angles and other information on all Maverick's players for the use of both players and front office members

University of California at Santa Cruz Arboretum Landscaper

September 2012 – August 2015

- Responsible for opening and closing facilities across the 144-acre arboretum; completing a wide range of tasks ranging from propagation, brush clearing, tree-planting, greenhouse construction and general upkeep
- Accomplished the construction of the Contract Grow wherein thousands of plants are now propagated, built the rock formation lining the South African garden, reconstructed the drip-irrigation lines running from more than 150 established trees native to New Zealand, Australia, etc.

UCSC Art Department Fence Builder/Planter

October 2013 – September 2014

- Contracted out to build fences for a tandem Art and Ecology project near the Sagehen Creek Field Station located close to the California-Nevada Border east of Sacramento
- Worked in a group for 3-5 day stretches constructing 15 fenced areas at elevations varying from 6,000 - 8,500 feet; planted more than 8,000 plants of various species within the areas of erected fencing

Related Skills

- Have completed lab courses specific to coding in the statistical packages R, Stata, and Python; all with an emphasis on interpreting, manipulating and showcasing large datasets for empirical projects, analysis, etc.
- Proficiency in using Microsoft Office programs such as Excel and PowerPoint

Education:

University of California, Santa Cruz

August 2016 – Present

- Master of Science, Applied Economics and Finance
- Coursework includes, but is not limited to, advanced micro/macro economics, applied econometrics, finance

University of California, Santa Cruz

September 2011 - June 2015

- Bachelor of Arts, Business Management Economics; Minor in History
- Coursework included, but was not limited to, the intro and intermediate micro/macro economic series', accounting series, econometrics, economic development, statistics, and international financial markets

Extracurricular/Voluntary Experience:

Gesher Group Member, Board Member & Director of Fundraising

March 2014 – June 2015

- Part of the University of California at Santa Cruz's first on campus student-run business group committed to providing motivated students with education and first-hand experience in consulting and investment fields
- Member of the consulting faction of Gesher Group: here projects were taken on with local and regional businesses in marketing research, strategy, etc; As the Director of Fundraising, worked on organizing fundraisers, networking, developing quarterly newsletters, and facilitating group meetings and curriculum

Junior Fellowship Faculty Member

December 2014 – March 2015

- Co-taught the Stevenson College full 5-Unit freshman Core Course with another upper classmen
- Designed the syllabus, constructed essay prompts, graded formal papers, and led discussion for a course that covered literature including, but not limited to, works by Marx, Gandhi, Rousseau, Nietzsche and Woolf