The Economics Department at the University of California, Santa Cruz (UCSC) invites applications for a Visiting Assistant Professor for the 2016-17 academic year, with the possibility of a one-year renewal. We seek a scholar in finance and econometrics.

The Economics Department has a Ph.D. program, a professional Master’s program, and several undergraduate programs. Applicants will be expected to teach at both the undergraduate and graduate level, advise and mentor graduate students, and contribute to graduate education, the research environment of the department and to university and professional service. The successful candidate must be able to work with students, faculty, and staff from a wide range of social and cultural backgrounds. The campus is especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through their research, teaching, and/or service.

RANK: Visiting Assistant Professor

SALARY: $90,000-95,000, commensurate with qualifications and experience; academic year (9-month) basis.

BASIC QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. or equivalent foreign degree in Economics or related field, experience in econometrics and finance, and evidence of teaching and research. Degree expected to be completed by June 30, 2016.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Demonstrated expertise and teaching experience in finance, financial engineering, econometrics and applied empirical research.

POSITION AVAILABLE: July 1, 2016, with academic year beginning September 2016. Ph.D. degree must be completed by June 30, 2016 for employment beyond that date. Position is contingent on available funding.

TERM OF APPOINTMENT: The initial appointment is for one year, with a possible extension to a second year. Should the hiring unit propose reappointment; a review to assess performance will be conducted. Reappointment is also contingent upon availability of funding.

TO APPLY: Applications are accepted via the UCSC Academic Recruit online system, and must include a letter of application, curriculum vitae, research statement, teaching statement, 1-2 papers, and 3 current confidential reference letters* submitted directly by your referees or dossier service. Applicants may submit 1-2 sets of teaching evaluations if available and are invited to submit a statement addressing their past and/or potential contributions to diversity through research, teaching and/or service. Documents/materials must be submitted as PDF files. Apply at https://recruit.ucsc.edu/apply/JPF00351

*All letters will be treated as confidential per University of California policy and California state law. For any reference letter provided via a third party (i.e., dossier service, career center), direct the author to UCSC's confidentiality statement at http://apo.ucsc.edu/confstm.htm

CLOSING DATE: Review of applications will begin on March 27, 2016. To ensure full consideration, applications should be complete and letters of recommendation received by this date. The position will remain open until filled, but not later than 6/30/2016.
